

POLITIC365

Virtual TownHall

with Congressman James E. Clyburn

Thursday, August 25, 2011
6:00 - 8:00 pm

Faced with economic strife and growing social and political unrest, the primary focus for members of congress serious about delivering America to a place of true economic recovery and prosperity is jobs.

During a virtual town hall moderated by Politic365, Congressman James Clyburn will discuss the most pressing issues facing our economy and will answer your questions about jobs, the deficit, taxes and what we can expect from congress during the next fifteen months.

Congressman Clyburn values the importance of your voice and anticipates your participation in this virtual town hall meeting.

The town hall will be conducted via conference call, which you can access from your home, office or mobile phone.

To submit questions for the virtual town hall and to RSVP to receive the conference call in number for the event, please email rsvp@politic365.com with your name and email address.

You can also submit questions to Politic365 online via Facebook or Twitter twitter @Politic365 @clyburn

facebook /LikePolitic365